

Published in The News and Observer, October 20, 2007

Ingram officially Durham Tech chief

From Staff Reports

DURHAM - Bill Ingram has officially been named the fourth president of Durham Technical Community College in Durham.

He was selected last month by Durham Tech officials, and his candidacy was approved this week by the State Board of Community Colleges.

Ingram starts work Jan. 1 and succeeds Phail Wynn, who has led Durham Tech for the past 27 years. Ingram joined the college in 1983 and has served as a continuing education director and dean of the college's technical and vocational programs.