ENG 111: WRITING AND INQUIRY

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Prerequisites: DRE 098 (or ENG 090 and RED 090, or ENG 095), or satisfactory score on placement test.
Corequisites: None

This course is designed to develop the ability to produce clear writing in a variety of genres and formats using a recursive process. Emphasis includes inquiry, analysis, effective use of rhetorical strategies, thesis development, audience awareness, and revision. Upon completion, students should be able to produce unified, coherent, well-developed essays using standard written English. Students should also be able to respond critically to readings and demonstrate an understanding of the fundamentals of research and MLA documentation. This is a Universal General Education Transfer Component (UGETC) course.

Competencies
1. Demonstrate writing as a recursive process.
2. Demonstrate writing and inquiry in context using different rhetorical strategies to reflect, analyze, explain, and persuade in a variety of genres and formats.
3. Students will reflect upon and explain their writing strategies.
4. Demonstrate the critical use and examination of printed, digital, and visual materials.
5. Locate, evaluate, and incorporate relevant sources with proper documentation.
6. Compose texts incorporating rhetorically effective and conventional use of language.
7. Collaborate actively in a writing community.

Course Hours per Week: Class, 3. Semester Hours Credit, 3.
