Upon completion, students should be able to comprehend and respond with grammatical accuracy to spoken and written German and demonstrate cultural awareness. This course must be taken with the accompanying lab. This course has been approved to satisfy the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement for the general education core requirement in humanities/fine arts.
Course Hours Per Week: Class, 3. Semester Hours Credit, 3.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this course, successful students will be able to do the following with sufficient accuracy to be understood by a native speaker who is accustomed to working with language learners:

1. Use the language to engage in interpersonal communication on well-practiced, familiar topics using limited, formulaic language. Often rely on repetition and extralinguistic clues (e.g., gestures and tone of voice) to negotiate meaning.
   a. Exchange greetings and introductions using formal and informal expressions
   b. Ask and answer simple questions
   c. Discuss everyday life and daily routines, using simple sentences and familiar vocabulary
   d. Discuss likes and dislikes

2. Understand words and concepts presented in the language in texts which use well-practiced, familiar topics and grammar structures. Often rely on repetition, one’s own background knowledge and extralinguistic cues (e.g., visuals or gestures) to interpret meaning.
   a. Understand simple conversations about familiar topics (e.g., greetings, weather and daily activities,) with repetition when needed
   b. Identify key details in a short, highly-contextualized audio text dealing with a familiar topic, relying on repetition and extralinguistic support when needed.
   c. Identify key details of highly predictable written texts
   d. Extract basic information about familiar cultural topics from written or audio texts
   e. Navigate a website in German on a basic level

3. Use the language to present information to an audience through written and spoken forms on well-practiced, familiar topics.
   a. Offer basic descriptions of self, other people, familiar places and objects in short discourse using simple sentences and basic vocabulary
   b. Provide basic information about familiar situations and topics of interest
   c. Express or/and justify opinions on a basic level
4. Demonstrate an awareness of the relationship between the products, practices and perspectives of the cultures in the German-speaking world.
   a. Identify and describe distinguishing features of countries and regions of the German-speaking world
   b. Give examples of the cultural and linguistic diversity of the German-speaking world
   c. Compare and contrast patterns of behavior in the cultures of the German-speaking world and the student’s native culture
