

ARA 182 – Arabic Lab II

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Prerequisites: ARA 181

Corequisites: ARA 112

This course provides an opportunity to enhance acquisition of the fundamental elements of the modern standard Arabic language. Emphasis is placed on the progressive development of basic listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills through the use of supplementary learning media and materials. Upon completion, students should be able to comprehend and respond with increasing proficiency to spoken and written Arabic and demonstrate cultural awareness. This course has been approved to satisfy the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement for transferability as a pre-major and/or elective course requirement.
Course Hours Per Week: Lab, 3. Semester Hours Credit, 1.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this course, successful students will be able to do the following with sufficient accuracy to be understood by a native speaker who is accustomed to working with language learners:

1. Use the language to engage in interpersonal communication on well-practiced, familiar topics using limited language. May rely on repetition and extralinguistic clues (e.g., gestures and tone of voice) to negotiate meaning.
 - a. Ask and answer questions about a variety of familiar situations and topics of interest
 - b. Discuss everyday life and daily routines in the present and past, using simple sentences and familiar vocabulary
 - c. Discuss likes and dislikes and justify opinions
 - d. Interact with others in unrehearsed situations (e.g., role-play and spontaneous conversation)
2. Understand words and concepts presented in the language in texts which use familiar topics and grammar structures. May rely on repetition, one's own background knowledge and extralinguistic cues (e.g., visuals or gestures) to interpret meaning.
 - a. Understand simple conversations about a variety of familiar topics, with repetition when needed
 - b. Identify main ideas and key details in a short audio text dealing with a familiar topic, relying on repetition and extralinguistic support when needed
 - c. Identify main ideas and key details of written texts on a variety of familiar topics
 - d. Extract basic information from texts on unfamiliar topics
3. Use the language to present information to an audience through written and spoken forms on well-practiced, familiar topics.
 - a. Offer descriptions of self, other people, familiar places and objects in short discourse using series of connected sentences and a variety of vocabulary
 - b. Provide basic information about familiar situations and topics of interest with many details
 - c. Provide simple factual presentations in written and spoken form
 - d. Express or/and justify opinions
4. Demonstrate an awareness of the relationship between the products, practices and perspectives of the cultures in the Arabic-speaking world.
 - a. Identify and describe distinguishing features of countries and regions of the Arabic-speaking world
 - b. Give examples of the cultural and linguistic diversity of the Arabic-speaking world
 - c. Compare and contrast patterns of behavior in the cultures of the Arabic-speaking world and the student's native culture
