

GER 182 – German Lab 2

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Prerequisites: DRE 097 or ENG-002 and GER 181 with minimum grade of C; or satisfactory score on placement test

Corequisites: GER 112

This course provides an opportunity to enhance acquisition of the fundamental elements of the German language. Emphasis is placed on the progressive development of basic listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills through the use of supplementary learning media and materials. Upon completion, students should be able to comprehend and respond with increasing proficiency to spoken and written German and demonstrate cultural awareness. This course must be taken with the accompanying class. This course has been approved to satisfy the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement as a premajor and/or elective course requirement.

Course Hours Per Week: Lab, 2. Semester Hours Credit, 1.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this course, successful students will be able to do the following with sufficient accuracy to be understood by someone accustomed to working with language learners:

1. Use the language to engage in interpersonal communication on well-practiced, familiar topics using limited language, sometimes creating language beyond simple sentences and sentence fragments. May rely on repetition and extralinguistic clues (e.g., gestures and tone of voice) to negotiate meaning.
 - a. Ask and answer questions about a variety of familiar situations and topics of interest
 - b. Discuss everyday life and daily routines in the present and past, using simple sentences and familiar vocabulary
 - c. Discuss likes and dislikes and justify opinions
 - d. Interact with others in unrehearsed situations (e.g., role-play and spontaneous conversation)
2. Understand words and concepts presented in the language in spoken and written texts which use familiar topics and language structures. May rely on repetition, one's own background knowledge and extralinguistic cues (e.g., visuals or gestures) to interpret meaning.
 - a. Understand simple conversations about a variety of familiar topics, with repetition when needed
 - b. Identify main ideas and key details in short texts dealing with a familiar topic, relying on repetition and extralinguistic support when needed
 - c. Extract basic information on unfamiliar topics from written or audio texts
 - d. Navigate a website in German
3. Use the language to present information to an audience through written and spoken forms on well-practiced, familiar topics, sometimes creating language beyond simple sentences and sentence fragments.
 - a. Offer descriptions of self, other people, familiar places and objects in short discourse using simple sentences and a variety of vocabulary
 - b. Provide basic information about familiar situations, activities and topics of interest with many details
 - c. Express likes and dislikes on familiar and everyday topics and explain why
4. Demonstrate an awareness of the relationship between the products, practices and perspectives of the cultures in the German-speaking world.
 - a. Identify and describe distinguishing features of countries and regions of the German-speaking world
 - b. Identify products and practices related to familiar topics
 - c. Give examples of the cultural and linguistic diversity of the German-speaking world
