

Highlights from Wednesday, Dec. 10, 2025, Board of Trustees meeting

Committee reports

Student Success and Workforce & Economic Development

Notification of SACSCOC approval for the following:

- Social and Human Services AAS degree
 - Introduction to Social and Human Services Certificate
 - Construction Management Certificate
- ***

Pending SACSCOC approval, the College is proposing three new offerings in Information Technology (IT):

- Artificial Intelligence AAS degree
- Artificial Intelligence Fundamentals Certificate
- Artificial Intelligence Fundamentals High School Certificate

President's report

- The affordable housing property closing is scheduled for the week of December 15th.

- SACSCOC institutional reaffirmation is in progress; The required standards report is due February 2026.
- Forward movement continues on the café renovation project, which the Board voted to name the John Burness Commons, as well as the exterior courtyard.

- Spring 2026 enrollment is trending upward, and the college currently exhibits a positive campus climate.

Consent agenda and action items

Consent agenda

The Board unanimously approved the budget report and Continuing Education off-cycle fees.

Board actions

The Board unanimously approved the following actions:

- West Collins Building HVAC replacement
- East Collins Building HVAC replacement

Student Government Association President's report

In his report to the Board, Student Government Association President Child Precieux Kounieka spoke about what a positive experience the N4CSGAfall conference he and other SGA members attended.

He also spoke about events SGA has organized this fall, as well as what SGA's plans are for the spring, including hosting a Town Hall and finding more ways to connect students with available resources.

