

Borrower Acknowledgment Statement Total and Permanent Disability Discharge

A student who has had a previous federal education loan discharged due to Total and Permanent Disability (TPD) may, under certain circumstances, borrow a new federal student loan. However, it may be necessary to resume repayment on the previously discharged loan. If it's within the three-year monitoring period.

*This form serves to reestablish your eligibility for the Federal Student Loan Program when prior loans have been discharged due to total and permanent disability. Completion of this form does not guarantee that you will qualify for the Federal Student Loan Program.

Student Name: _____ Student ID#: _____

PART I: Borrower's Acknowledgment Statement

By signing this document, I acknowledge that any new Federal Student Aid loans that I may qualify for cannot be discharged in the future for any present impairment unless it deteriorates so that I am again totally and permanently disabled. I am also aware that before I can receive any Federal Student Aid loans, I must obtain a physician's certification stating that I can engage in "substantial gainful activity." A Borrower's Acknowledgment Statement must be completed before any Federal Student Aid loans are received.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Note:

(1) The student must sign a new acknowledgment for the school each time they receive a new loan after a disability discharge.

(2) The physician's certification is required only once before the student may borrow new federal student loans after a disability discharge. The school will maintain this certification in the student's files.

PART II: Identity and Acknowledgement Statement

The student must appear in person at Durham Technical Community College to verify his or her identity by presenting an unexpired valid government-issued photo identification (ID), such as, but not limited to, a driver's license, other state-issued ID, or passport. The institution will maintain a copy of the student's photo ID that is annotated by the institution with the date it was received and reviewed and the name of the official at the institution authorized to receive and review the student's ID. In addition, the student must sign in the presence of the institutional official, the TPD Acknowledgement Statement.
